The M3 will transform the attendee experience before, during and after the event by promoting a more interactive, central event resource. Companies may purchase banner advertisements or banner links on the Conference App. This is an especially valuable tool allowing participants the benefit of a user experience that is much more connected. M3Sponsors can drive traffic to their corporate website, a targeted landing page, or social media such as Facebook or Twitter.

The best way for you to experience what M3 has to offer is test drive a sample App. Please visit the links below to experience the M3 Mobile Meeting Manager from actual events. Be sure to log in with a smart phone or mobile device.
